

Madeline Smith Fact Sheet

Career -

- Released her self-titled debut album, Madeline Smith at age 16 with Kent Wells, Dolly Parton's producer.
- Released 3 singles off of her debut album to radio in the U.S. and the U.K. All 3 singles hit the top 20 on the U.K. Country Charts.
- Because of her U.K. success, she was invited to perform at the British Country Music Awards two years in a row.
- Performed at the 2014 National Girl Scout Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah.
- Performed at the 2015 East Coast Hockey League's (ECHL) All Star Championship at the Amway Center in Orlando, FL in front of 20,000 people. Also aired on NHL.
- Toured the U.S. and the U.K.
- Has opened for top country music acts such as Darius Rucker, Lee Brice, Kelsea Ballerini, Scotty McCreery, Lauren Alaina, Canaan Smith and many more!
- Has over 1.3 million views on her VEVO channel.
- Currently releasing music videos and singles from her recent project New Beginnings.

Personal –

- Born and raised in New Jersey with summers and holidays often spent in Louisiana with family.
- Began playing piano at age 10 and picked up singing from there.
- Gained her performance experience from singing in church.
- Can play piano, guitar, and even banjo.
- Lived in Asia for about 2 years during middle school.
- Has her boating license and has driven a 70-foot yacht.
- Loves playing pranks on band members. She once almost got one of them arrested!
- Has a nickname of "Grace" because of the amount of times she falls in a day. For some reason, she has never fallen on stage though!